Important Information About Procedures For Opening A New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identity you. We will also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

The undersigned represents that all information in this Financial Statement is complete and accurate and that there is no bankruptcy or similar proceeding in progress or anticipated involving the undersigned. The undersigned authorizes any consumer credit reporting agency to compile and furnish to the Bank consumer credit report(s) to be used in connection with a credit application for the undersigned or any credit account granted to the undersigned. The undersigned also authorizes the Bank to verify the undersigned's employment history. The undersigned acknowledges and agrees that the Bank is not obligated to grant credit to the undersigned or any other party and the Bank may retain this Financial Statement even if credit is not granted. The undersigned authorizes the Bank to provide information to others about the Bank's experience with the undersigned in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act or other similar laws.
